RENO, WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA, THURSDAY, AUGUST 11, 1887.

NO. 112

In Brief, and to the Point.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this bad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

Merit Will Tell.

Was never better demonstrated than when "Fryer's Abietene Remedy" were awarded diplomas at the late California State Fair at Sacramento and at the Mechanics Institute at San Francisco. W. P. Pinniger is agent for the celebrated "Abietene Remedy" and he offers to return your money if they do not give satisfaction. In buying, be sure the fac-simile signature of D. F. Fryer is on each, as none are genuine without it.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

Heart Disease.

Read the hospital reports, read the mortuary reports, read the medical publications, read the daily newspapers and learn how widespread heart disease is. How difficult of detection it is to most people, how many and how sudden are the deaths it causes. Then read Dr. Flint's treatise on heart disease, and learn what it is, what its symptoms are and how it may be attacked. If you find that you are afflicted with heart disease, write to Dr. Flint, 11 Front Street, S. F., for a copy of his treatise. It is a small book, but it is a life-saver.

Many Of the good things of life are sorrowful. I let alone on account of Dyspepsia. Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Constipation; sold on a positive guarantee at 25 and 50 cents, by W. PINNIGER, Druggist.

An End to Bone Scraping. Edward Shephard, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. I have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would never have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well. Electric Bitters are sold 150 cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25 cents per box by S. J. Hodgkinson & Co."

The Head of a Fairy.

A correspondent writing from Cherokee City, Arkansas, to the New York Sun says: An extraordinary fossil—if fossil it is—was packed up by me on the banks of Spavinaw creek, in the Indian Territory, about twenty miles from the west line of Benton county, Arkansas. The country through which the Spavinaw flows is very rough. In many places rocky bluffs rise to a considerable height on either side, and sometimes both sides. Rugged hills that can be seen for miles on either side flank the stream from its source to its mouth. The rocky formation seems to be flint and limestone. The bed of the creek is composed of solid rock in some places and very coarse gravel in others. The water is clear and limpid, always cool and pleasant in the hottest summer weather.

The supposed fossil is about the size of a walnut. The features of the human face, eyes, nose, mouth, forehead, cheeks and chin—may all be discerned, of course, not readily and distinctly by every one, but still they are there—somewhat distorted, it is true, for the chin is not in line with the nose, which makes one eye appear to be lower than the other. But this may be accounted for by the fact that the body, before and at the time petrification began, was lying on one side with something under the head, thus raising it above the lower jaw in position. It is usually the case after death. Water flowing over it and other action of the elements have defaced it to some extent, but, if it does not prove itself to be a genuine fossil of a human head, it is certainly a surprising imitation, and I cannot believe that it is a mere freak of nature. The features or seems in the skull, with so many other points of resemblance, seem to preclude all idea of its being only a freak, and yet nature is full of freaks. I know that it is a very common thing for people in rough countries like this to pick up curious specimens in the various sorts of stones, but I have never before seen anything in the shape of a fossil bearing any resemblance to a human head so small as this. It was lying half buried in the loose dirt of the bank of the creek, and only a few feet from the water's edge, when it attracted my notice. The features were turned up, showing the outlines of a human face, although it lay some distance from the water. The features were entirely ignorant of geology, and most of the limited intelligence, have seen it, yet most of them agree that it must be a fossil human head. I shall not be satisfied until it has been investigated by scientific men. I have written more than once to a distinguished scientist, but have received no answer, and now hope that through the medium of the Sun I may at last bring this little stone into notice.

The Art of Soup-Making.

There is a constant controversy going on as to the economy, digestibility and necessity of soup at the dinner table. Some maintain that a dinner without it cannot literally be called a dinner; others prejudiced against "slops," discarding it from their tables altogether; while a few who would gladly, by all means, take advantage of an opportunity to reduce their meat bills, have only the will, being ignorant of the way. The average middle class wife and mother may have sighed over the items of ribs and sirloins of beef, and legs and shoulders of mutton, and said to herself: "Ah, we must take to having a little soup." With praiseworthy promptitude and zeal, she has perchance opened her cookery book, of the old extravagant style, and closed it sorrowfully, a sadder, if not a wiser, woman, than when she first opened it. The ingredients of the long line of knuckles of veal, shins of beef, "old fowls," and slices of ham, which she is commanded to "throw into the stock pot" if she would insure success.

No, with soup-making, as with all else, once master the theory and the practice is comparatively easy; while, on the other hand, years of practice without a perfect knowledge of the why and the wherefore will prove of no avail. Let me illustrate by a meaning clearest. The would-be soup-maker, in scanning a recipe, discards it as impracticable because she lacks one or more of the ingredients mentioned, while she who grasps the modus operandi, owing to her theoretical knowledge at once substitutes others, or perhaps dispenses with them altogether.

No doubt, in many families, the prejudice against soup has arisen from the fact that it is usually prepared and served in large quantities, instead of, as at the tables of the rich, in small portions, though many of the kinds which I hope to enumerate would furnish in themselves a substantial meal for a growing child. At any rate, the advantages of commencing dinner with soup are manifest in the saving of the meat bills, and economy practiced in utilizing scraps of all kinds for the making of soups, and the comfortable sensation experienced after a little has been taken; for let any person who feels, as the saying is, "too hungry to eat," swallow a few spoonfuls of soup, and the feeling of exhaustion will quickly pass away. Indeed, a well-known authority has said that nothing tends more to restore the tone of the stomach, and make easier of digestion that which is to follow, than a little soup.

Never Give Up. If you suffer with asthma, bronchitis, or any other disease of the throat or lungs, nothing can surprise you more than the rapid improvement that will follow the use of Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy. Indeed, a well-known authority has said that nothing tends more to restore the tone of the stomach, and make easier of digestion that which is to follow, than a little soup.

Give Them a Chance!

That is to say, your lungs. Also all you breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the thin ends of all the tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well. Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boese's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed us, you may depend upon this for certain.

A Perilous Postponement. To postpone, when the duty for immediate action is clear, is always unwise. Especially is it so when increasing ill health calls for a resort to medication. Diseases of the kidneys and bladder are often of swift growth—always of fatal tendency if not combated at the outset. We have all—even those of us who are not remarkably well instructed—heard something of the danger attending Bright's disease, diabetes, and other diseases of the kidneys and bladder. Indolence, if he perceives the renal organs to be inactive, postpones the duty for immediate action, and thus invites disaster. It is this indolence that is to be overcome, to sufficiently stimulate, without exciting, the kidneys and bladder. Indolence is this disease to be preferred to the impure and stercoraceous of commerce, which prove the base of many persons with a tendency to renal trouble. As they are like wise incompromisable dyspepsia, debility, fever and acute and biliousness.

Can't Sleep. Nights, is the complaint of thousands suffering from asthma, consumption, cough, etc. Did you ever try Acker's English Remedy? It is the best preparation known for all Lung Troubles, sold on a positive guarantee at 10c., 50c.

W. PINNIGER, Druggist.

Good Results in Every Case. D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes that he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs; had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, did so and was entirely cured by use of a few bottles. Since which time he has been in his family for all coughs and colds with best results. This is the experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by the use of Dr. King's New Discovery. Trial bottle free at S. J. Hodgkinson & Co's Drug Store.

WILL YOU SUFFER with Dyspepsia and liver complaint? Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is guaranteed to cure you. For sale by Osburn & Shoemaker.

Secretary W. C. Dovey, of the Board of Education of the State Orphans' Home, is out in a card denying that the industrial department of the Home is to be closed. We are pleased that the Board by this card publishes its commitment to the policy adopted by the last Board, and that manual training is to be still one of the leading features of the Home. The GAZETTE is friendly disposed to the Orphans' Home Board, but cannot and will not forget the present and future interests of the fifty or more orphans entrusted to their care. The GAZETTE had information from two members of the Board and two other persons officially connected with the Home that the industrial department might be closed indefinitely, and from two of these officials that it had been so closed. The discharge of Mr. Robertson, the teacher, with no effort to fill his place, seems to be evidence conclusive that we were right. Now, if Secretary Dovey would like to have published just what the ex-members, C. S. Young and C. S. Preble, do know about the industrial department and the probability that it would close, the GAZETTE will take pleasure in making the same public. The GAZETTE, contrary to the statement of Secretary Dovey, did take pains to ascertain the facts, and we feared to the great discomfiture of Secretary Dovey and the other members of the Board. The charge, so far as the GAZETTE is involved, that no effort was made to ascertain the facts is not true. However, it is enough now to know that manual training is to be maintained in the Home, and whatever the present Board may have said or done is immaterial to the public. That manual training should be a part of the education of Nevada orphans is settled, and we trust forever. The GAZETTE heartily commends the proposed policy of the Board as set forth in Secretary Dovey's card, and promises cheerful co-operation in every effort to advance the interests of the best institution in the State.

Again President Cleveland gives occasion of offense to the press. Someone referring to the fact that the members of his Cabinet were leaving Washington, and the consequent loneliness of the President, the latter said somewhat facetiously that notwithstanding this he thought with the help of the newspaper correspondents he could pull through. When the reporters invaded the White House on reception days, or the editors criticised his rebel flag order there may have been some slight excuse for the President's irritation, but not the least excuse for the last ungentlemanly insinuation that reporters were beneath his exalted Highness. Cleveland puts like a big baby boy with his first new suit of clothes and red top boots if you but point your finger at him.

The matter of water-storage in Arizona is receiving attention. The valley of the Hassayampa river, Yavapai Co., comprises rich placer and fertile farming and grazing lands. Its chief lack is water. A company is constructing a dam across a rocky canyon that is 90 feet long at its base and about 400 feet at its top, with a thickness varying from 130 feet at the bottom to 10 feet at the top, and a height of 110 feet. When completed it will have a capacity of 15,000,000 gallons, and will cost $250,000. There are numerous sites in the foothills of Nevada where similar reservoirs could be conveniently located and water furnished to irrigate thousands of acres of land that are now apparently worthless.

A few days ago the business men of Oakland raised by subscription $900 to send to Ogden an agent whose business it is to advertise Oakland and its surroundings. Such enterprise is just what has boomed the various towns throughout the state of California.

A Horrible Railroad Disaster.

CHICAGO, August 11.

Dispatches from Peoria say that an excursion train of 15 cars, en route to Niagara Falls on the Toledo, Peoria and Western Railway, went through a bridge at Chatsworth during the night, and 100 people were killed and injured. A relief train of 24 cars has gone to the scene of disaster from Peoria.

A dispatch from Chatsworth says that the train left Bloomington last night for Niagara Falls on the Illinois Central, the intention being to go by that route as far as Chatsworth, and from thence by way of Toledo, Peoria and Warsaw. The change was made in Chatsworth, Livingston county, soon afterwards. As the train neared Piper City, a small town in Ford county, the bridge crossing Vermillion river gave way, plunging the engine and several cars down a steep embankment into the stream. The cars caught fire from lamps, and a fearful panic ensued. An investigation is being conducted by the Illinois Central, and the Illinois Central is making the same public. The GAZETTE, contrary to the statement of Secretary Dovey, did take pains to ascertain the facts, and we feared to the great discomfiture of Secretary Dovey and the other members of the Board. The charge, so far as the GAZETTE is involved, that no effort was made to ascertain the facts is not true. However, it is enough now to know that manual training is to be maintained in the Home, and whatever the present Board may have said or done is immaterial to the public. The GAZETTE heartily commends the proposed policy of the Board as set forth in Secretary Dovey's card, and promises cheerful co-operation in every effort to advance the interests of the best institution in the State.

The conductor of a Chicago and Alton passenger train, which has just arrived at Chicago from Bloomington, where the Toledo, Peoria and Warsaw and the Chicago and Alton railways connect, learned from one of the conductors of the first named road that an accident occurred near Piper City, a small station east of Chatsworth. The excursion train, while on the bridge near Piper City, came in collision with another train going in the opposite direction. The cause of the collision was that the bridge was not properly secured. The cause of the collision was that the bridge was not properly secured.

The Niagara Falls excursion train on the T. & W. railway, consisting of 17 coaches and sleepers crowded with passengers from Peoria and other points along the line, was wrecked on a trestle and half mile east of Chatsworth by running into a burning culvert. The engines were completely wrecked, together with ten coaches and the baggage car. Engineer McClintock was instantly killed, two firemen and another engineer escaping serious injury. The ten cars were piled on top of two engines that were telescoped and crushed across and on top of each other. It is miraculous how any one escaped, as the coaches and engines do not occupy over two car lengths of the track. In one coach not a person escaped. In another only a lady. Seventy of the dead have been taken out up to this time, and 100 of the wounded are now in the Chatsworth hospital. The bodies of the dead are being taken out of the wreck at Piper City. There are a large number. The injured number over 100. The dead are estimated at over 100. The cars caught fire, but the flames were put out by the men and passengers. A heavy rain set in about two hours after the wreck before the wounded could be taken away. It rained two hours. The people are doing all they can for the wounded.

Peoria, August 11.
A private dispatch from Superintendent Armstrong, of the T. & W. and W. railway, says that 110 bodies have so far been taken out of the wreck at Chatsworth, Ill., August 11.
It was a wild throng which surrounded the Union depot in Peoria this morning. The news of the wreck of the Niagara excursion train of 15 coaches and two engines had spread like wild fire. Four hundred curious onlookers, mostly from Peoria, Eureka and other places, many of them well known and highly respected throughout Central Illinois, were about the depot. The coaches had been wrecked, and the number killed was variously estimated at from six to 100. All of the stations along the line large crowds had gathered to learn the latest from Peoria. Some wild rumors prevailed, but nothing of an authentic nature was learned. When the relief train reached its destination a sad and ghastly sight was to be seen. The bodies of the dead were being taken out of the wreck at Piper City. There are a large number. The injured number over 100. The dead are estimated at over 100. The cars caught fire, but the flames were put out by the men and passengers. A heavy rain set in about two hours after the wreck before the wounded could be taken away. It rained two hours. CHICAGO, August 11.
In reviewing the drought situation the Journal says last night: The outlook for the agricultural districts of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa and southern portions of Michigan and Wisconsin is gloomy in the extreme. These Territories have been for 14 months subjected to a visitation of drought, for which a parallel cannot be found in many years. During the past few weeks the state of things has been intensified in the districts mentioned and much injury to growing crops has resulted. The destruction of the corn crop is about 50 per cent. Where crops were planted late in the season owners will not probably realize the cost of planting or of necessary food for live stock. There will be an appalling dearth and the price of milk, meat, butter, cheese and other farm products may be expected to rise to an unprecedented height. The effects of the drought will be felt in all quarters. Trade and business, as well as in agricultural districts, will feel it. The grain will not be there to ship. Neither will the fattened stock be there to haul. Already farmers are disposing of herds of half fattened swine and even horses and cows are being disposed of at 25 per cent of their ordinary value.

A Heavy Failure.

New York, August 11.

The firm of Henry S. Ives & Co. has just notified the Stock Exchange of its suspension. There was intense excitement on board as soon as the information was given out. Cromwell, of Sullivan & Cromwell, has been made assignee. The liabilities are estimated at $200,000, with assets slightly in excess of that amount. The announcement was made just before the close of the Stock Exchange, and caused a slight rally.

Not "Kit's" Kiddest Son.

DENVER, August 11.

Telegrams from Alamosa, Colorado, state that the report which reached here yesterday that Wm. Carson, Sheriff of Conejos county, and the eldest son of the famous scout, "Kit" Carson, has been murdered in Taos valley while attempting to arrest a outlaw named Vigil, proves to be untrue. The victim, "Kit," a young brother of Sheriff Carson.

Suicide on Account of His Losses.

BUTTE, Mont., August 11.

W. P. Schuster, an old Philadelphian, who has a brother in the Baltimore and Ohio telegraph service at that city, shot himself dead here yesterday. He had lost some $700 on Butte races and other gambling, and in despair, ended his life. He stands high in nearly all of the orders in the Territory.

Ex-Justice Wood's Successor.

NEW YORK, August 11.

A Washington special to the Herald says: "If Michael L. Woods, of Alabama, is to be believed, President Cleveland has actually decided upon the appointment of a successor to Justice Woods, of the United States Supreme Court. The fortunate man, according to Mr. Woods, is Judge Edward W. Pettus, of Alabama.

WESTERN DISPATCHES

Murder and Suicide.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 11.

A murder and suicide occurred early this morning in the lodging house at No. 32 Fourth street. Michael Kennedy, a barkeeper at the Cremorne Theater, was shot four times and had his throat cut by Fanny Hynes, a woman with whom, it is said, he has been living in sin for a year past. She made an attack upon Kennedy while he was asleep, and afterwards shot herself once and cut her throat. Kennedy is said to be the cause. The woman was a waitress at the Cremorne until recently. It is said that Kennedy had been trying to keep out of her way, but she met him last night and induced him to go home with her. Both bodies were taken to the morgue this morning.

A Terrible Explosion in Berkeley.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 11.

An explosion occurred at the works of the Berkeley Giant Powder Company, located in West Berkeley, opposite this city, at a quarter of 2 o'clock this afternoon. The shock was of sufficient force to severely shake all of the large buildings in this city, and at first the impression was that an earthquake had occurred. The first report from the scene of the explosion stated that 30 Chinamen employed about the works had been killed.

A Southern Pacific Train Robbed.

TUCSON, A. T., August 11.

The west-bound passenger train was robbed last night at about the same place and time as the one on the night of April 26th. The engine and two cars were ditched, and Engineer Guthrie and the fireman were injured. The Sheriff is raising a posse to pursue the robbers. The robbery occurred near the town of Papago, where the robbers boarded the train and made their way to the express car. The express messenger was knocked senseless, and the robbers succeeded in securing $5,000. This is believed to be the extent of the booty.

FOREIGN DISPATCHES

Prince Ferdinand on Route to Sofia.

VIENNA, August 11.

Prince Ferdinand, of Saxe-Coburg, who started for Sofia to assume the Bulgarian throne, slept last night at Orsova. He rose early and resumed his journey at 5 o'clock. Prince Ferdinand sent a note to the Powers yesterday, stating that the reason for starting for Bulgaria without their consent was that he was sure that opposition to his acceptance of the Bulgarian throne was not due to any objection to him personally, but was directed solely to the manner of his election.

Looks Very Improbable.

HALIFAX, August 11.

An apparently well founded rumor is current that a British Luce has been requested to be relieved of the command of the North Atlantic Station, and that Commodore Benham, at present in charge of the Third District Lightships, will relieve him. Admiral Luce and Captain Scott met by accident in Consul General Phelan's office yesterday, and the Commodore of the Fisheries Protection Service extended sympathy to the Admiral for the rebuke he received from the United States Navy Department. Luce received the rebuke in the spirit in which it was tendered, and the two had half an hour's pleasant conversation on the general situation. The meeting was unintentional, as Luce is not holding any more formal conferences with the fishery authorities. Luce was asked if he was surprised to find Secretary Whitney's dispatch in this regard. He answered that he was never more astonished in his life. On being asked what he thought of his treatment, he expressed a decision not to speak about it, dismissing the subject by repeating the Shakespearean remark, "Behold the great image of authority; a dog's obeyed in office."

Blaine Visits in Great Britain. DUBLIN, August 11.
Blaine visited Queenstown yesterday and inspected various places of interest. After leaving his card at the residence of Mr. Pratt, United States Consul, he returned to Cork without having been recognized.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEVITIES.

The Union Labor Convention re-assembled this morning at Rochester, N. Y. The report of the Committee on Resolutions was read, recommending the adoption of the Cincinnati platform, with one plank left out and several additions.

It is semi-officially stated that owing to the change in Bulgarian affairs, the Russian Government has issued a circular to the Powers. It is further stated that if Prince Ferdinand assumes the power the Porte will expect the Powers to withhold their recognition until Turkey recognizes the Prince.

Dr. John McDonnell and his wife were charged in their room at the Briggs House, Chicago, last night, with buying and selling the bodies of a woman who is dangerously wounded. Both are unconscious and no particulars of the affair can be learned. By the circumstances it appears that he shot her and then attempted suicide. Jealousy is supposed to be the motive.

Testimonial From Assemblyman

Edward A. Darragh.

STATE OF NEW YORK,

ASSEMBLY CHAMBER,

ALBANY, April 16, 1884.

Some years ago I was thrown from a wagon and fractured two of my ribs. I was so badly hurt that I had to sit up in a chair for four days and nights. The fourth day my mother placed two Alloce's Porous Plasters over my broken ribs. The next day my sufferings diminished and I was able to lie down. I continued to improve every day. Two weeks after the accident I got up and attended to business. I renewed the plasters twice, and found myself almost entirely well in a month, when I sailed for England.

My wife is subject to periodic pains in the back that give her rest neither day nor night, but in two hours after applying two Alloce's Plasters she experiences relief, and in two or three days she is well. She also finds them effective in neuralgia and rheumatism.

EDWARD A. DARRAGH.

This was said here last evening by Jake Klein, who passed through on his way to Banning. He said that his partners, Senator Evan Williams and Mr. Tobey would be through on this evening's train, also on their way to visit the landed possessions in Southern California.

Vells in Abundance

F. Levy & Brother, on Virginia street, received a large and exquisite assortment of vells this morning. They are of every texture, style and design. To-morrow a few of them will be left, as the ladies have already been at the store selecting the richest and most attractive that has been brought to Reno for many a day. It is a new departure on the part of the firm, and the rapidly with which they have been disposed of is ample evidence of the enterprise of this popular dry goods and ladies furnishing emporium.

ANDERSON &amp; JOHNSON.

Sacramento, California—What Enterprise Accomplishes. Mr. Claus Anderson, of the firm of Anderson & Johnson, merchant tailors of Sacramento, California, has been here and at Carson and Virginia City for the past week. He has been taking measures for new Fall suits and is now on his way to Lake Tahoe, where he will remain for the rest of the week. Preparatory to returning to Sacramento, he will remain in Truckee a few days to meet his old customers. Mr. Anderson says the reason why he is so successful with the people of Nevada is because he takes their measures and carries them with him to Sacramento, where he does the cutting himself. This always insures a perfect fit. He carries samples of none but the best and latest goods in the market, consisting at present particularly of Fall goods. He numbers among his patrons in California and Nevada the leading public officials, business men, miners, railroad men, merchants, ranchers and citizens generally. On his present trip he has taken numerous orders for suits of English and Scotch worsted, tweed, cheviote and the latest pattern of broad wall—an enlarged improvement on the diagonal, and now in great demand by clerks and professional gentlemen. It is a very popular piece of goods. His oork sew styles are immense and attract attention wherever exhibited, as they can be secured in any color the taste admires. In the "full dress" line a great innovation has been made of late and Messrs.

Anderson & Johnson. Being up with the times are now supplying the demand. Instead of the old-fashioned broadcloth, "Casper goods," the most attractive ever introduced here have taken its place. The French and English patterns of fashion have adopted these goods and to-day they are the rage in New York and all the principal cities of America, particularly Washington, D. C. In "Prince Albert" the trade never lags and he carries with him every variety of goods he is able to cater to the tastes of the most fastidious at reasonable rates. Mr. Anderson visits Nevada four times a year and is always welcomed by his patrons because he will not take pay for goods that don't give satisfaction. His catalogue is himself, so that "when," as he says, "he visits his customers they see the shop itself and that he invariably announces his coming through the newspapers, as he knows the value of printer's ink." He will return to Reno during the State Fair, and take orders for the Winter trade. He says he is surprised at the growth of Reno, and the rapid strides the whole State of Nevada is making, and does not hesitate to open a branch store in Reno, which he has now in contemplation, because it is the general shipping depot of the State.

Nevada M. E. Conference. The Nevada M. E. Conference commenced its annual session in Carson City this morning, Bishop Walden presiding. This Conference has a jurisdiction embracing all Nevada and all that part of California lying this side of the Sierra, including Mono and Alpine counties, Truckee and Surprise Valley. It is estimated by one of the members that there are in this Conference about 30 pastors in active work. The session now being held will last four days. As M. E. ministers are not permitted to remain longer at one time than three years in a charge, it is certain that there will be several changes made at this session of the Conference.

The Bernice District. Mr. W. W. Williams is operating his mines at Bernice. E. L. Williams, his brother, who was in Reno yesterday and this morning, said that the prospect of the mines is good. Ten men are now at work in the mines and others will be set to work as soon as the developments will justify. The ore now taking out is from a depth of about 12 inches wide, and mills on an average $100 per ton. Mr. Williams mills considerable custom, ore for which he receives $20 per ton. He has a five-stamp mill which crushes about seven tons per day.

Editor Going Ahead. Mr. Horace R. Hudson, for many years local editor of the San Francisco Chronicle, passed through Reno this morning with his wife for a three months' tour of Europe. Before leaving San Francisco Mr. Hudson was presented by the Chronicle staff with a magnificent gold watch and chain and an ebony gold-headed cane as evidence of their appreciation of him.

St. Mary's Academy. Mount St. Mary's Academy, conducted by Sisters of St. Dominic, will commence its Fall term on August 27th next. The school is well managed and is popular throughout the State. Here young ladies will have facilities for mental training as good as the best; and moral training unequalled by any similar institution.

A Depot Near Elko. Says the Virginia Evening Reporter: It is rumored that the Hash House Superintendent of the Central Pacific has his eye on the magnificent business of Harry & Fitzgerald, of Reno. These gentlemen furnish the best grub on the line of the road, and it would be a traveling public calamity to lose them.

District Court. The alleged contempt matter of Smith against Challahan Brothers was called in the District Court this morning for the purpose of determining certain preliminary matters involving the question of jurisdiction. After hearing arguments the Judge took the matter under advisement.

RENO WATER COMPANY. OFFICE OF C. M. FASSETT, DRUGGIST, 110 N. 2ND ST., RENO, NEV., June 8, 1887.

T. K. HYMES, Esq., CHAIRMAN BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS—DEAR SIR: In accordance with your request, I have made examinations of three samples of water furnished by you, with special reference to such impurities as would render it unfit for domestic use, and beg leave to report the following results:

Sample No. 1 was taken from the river about ten miles above town, at the point where the water enters the lake. Sample No. 2 was taken from the main reservoir, four feet from the surface, near where the water is used in the town. Sample No. 3 was taken from the Highland ditch just before it empties into the main reservoir. The following is a tabulated statement of the results of the tests made:

(In parts per million.)
SAMPLES.	No. 1 No. 2 No. 3
Free ammonia.....	.0476 .1562 .0476
Albumenoid ammonia.....	.0833 .2604 .0833

(In grains per gallon.)
SAMPLES.	No. 1 No. 2 No. 3
Total solids.....	5.5298 8.7894 8.8304
Organic matter.....	.5144 .3216 .5144
Mineral matter.....	4.9152 8.3988 8.2160
Chlorine.....	Trace Trace Trace

The ammonia found indicates the proportion of contamination from animal sources, and as ammonia is a decomposing animal matter, etc., and in No. 1 and 2 is in small proportion as can be expected in a stream which flows through as many towns as the Truckee; while in No. 3 it is in three times the quantity as the other, and above the limit of safety—fixed by most authorities at .08 to .12 parts free ammonia, and .18 to .20 parts albumenoid ammonia per million of water.

The second table shows the results obtained from the examination of the water; drying and ignition of the residue in platinum crucibles, and proves that the water is as free from deleterious matters, prejudicial to health, as that supplied to almost any city of the Union.

Impurities resulting from sawdust in the river would be almost entirely eliminated by the use of "organic solids," but the results obtained show that the water is as pure as the best water much less, indeed, than is contained in many natural springs, some of which carry five grains or more of organic matter to the gallon just where they bubble from the earth.

The comparatively large amount of total solids in sample No. 3 is accounted for by the fact that the sample was taken from the ditch, the second day the water was running in it, after it had been empty for a few days, the water naturally being turbid from fine particles of dirt taken up from the bed of the ditch.

The samples all show an alkaline reaction, but so slight as to be immaterial, being less than one-tenth of the limit of safety, placed at .001 grains per gallon, that produced by adding .001 lb.

Very respectfully yours, C. M. FASSETT, Analyst.

JOSEPH LECONTE.

A Scientist Making Investigations. Professor Joseph LeConte, in company with his little son and Reverend G. W. James, has been spending five weeks in the mountains north of us. The Professor is one of the ablest of writers and one of the best geologists in the United States. He is quoted as authority in Europe as well as in America.

While in Reno last evening on his return trip home to Berkeley a GAZETTE reporter had the pleasure of an interview with this scientist. The Professor said at Blue Lakes he found trees standing as they grew but 54 feet under water, showing that the lake was formed by subsidence and recently. As at Mono and Owens Lakes he had noticed that the depression was on the side of the Sierras which is steepest, in which is found the fault. His theory is confirmed by what he saw in the mountains 180 miles north of here, viz, that one side of a range is gradually ascending while the other side is comparatively vertical.

The fault is always on the vertical side; sometimes it is ten miles wide, and on either side parallel crevices, extending often many miles. The Professor three or four years ago made an official report on Steamboat Springs; has reported on the prison tracks at Carson and also other places in this vicinity.

Speaking of the climate where he has been and in this vicinity generally, he says that it is incomparably better than at Riverside, Los Angeles, San Jose and other places in California where climate is selling at $2,000 per acre.

Frederick The Great.
It is related of an illustrious Russian general, that when a boy he lived for some time at the court of Frederick the Great, where the following incident occurred:
After the death of his father, his mother had many a hard struggle to support herself. The fact was well known to her son, whose greatest ambition at this time was to be able to provide comforts for her by his own exertions.

To his sorrow, he soon found that it was quite impossible to save any money for that purpose out of his small allowance. He did not despair, however, but assiduously set himself
to watch his opportunity.
At length an idea flashed through his mind. It was a recognized custom that one of the pages should sit up all night, in a room adjoining the king's sleeping apartment, to be ready at any moment to obey a summons, should the king require his services.

Fritz discovered that to some of the pages this duty was both burdensome and disagreeable, and that to provide a substitute they would gladly give a certain sum of money. Fritz offered to take upon himself the night-watch for any one who might be willing to pay him rather than accept the duty when their turn came round.

The offer was accepted by several,
and the money thus earned was regularly sent by Fritz to his mother.
One night, the king could not sleep, and determined at last to call the pages in attendance to read aloud to him. He called; but there was no response. At length he rose and walked into the ante-chamber, to look if there really was no page on duty.

Here he found a page, indeed, sitting at his post, but sound asleep.
Slipping quietly forward to the table at which the boy was sitting, the king's eyes fell upon a letter which Fritz had been writing to his mother when overpowered by sleep. The king read the following lines:

"My Dearest Beloved Mother:
This is the third night that I have taken watch-duty for a comrade. I can scarcely hold out any longer; but I rejoice greatly that I have again earned ten thalers for you, which I send in this letter."
With a heart deeply touched by this proof of tender filial affection, the king went softly back to his room, took out two rolls of ducats from a drawer,
and returned to the sleeping page,
into whose side pockets he gently slid the rolls of money. Then, betaking himself again to bed, the king
restore itself.

Fritz at last awoke with a start, to find that he must have slept for several hours; and, when finding his pockets heavy, he thrust his hands in and pulled out the precious rolls of money, he conjectured at once
what had happened.

Fear made him tremble, for it was a heinous offence to be caught asleep
at his post; but, in spite of the fear and shame he experienced, he could not but rejoice, for now he had ample means to assist his mother for a long time to come; and he hoped that the king, who, in the goodness of his heart, had put the ducats into his pockets, would pardon his grievous fault.

In the morning he seized the very first opportunity to approach the king, acknowledge the great dereliction
of duty of which he had been guilty,
and humbly beg for pardon.
One hurried glance at his monarch's benevolent countenance was enough,
for there he read not only forgiveness,
but approval; the kind eyes bent
upon him melted him to tenderness, and it was with a faltering voice he now gave expression to his heartfelt gratitude and thanks for the magnificent gift his majesty had bestowed upon him.

The king did not attempt to conceal the high admiration he felt for the filial love which had prompted Fritz to such noble, self-denying exertions.
He made a few kindly inquiries
regarding his mother's circumstances, and promised that from that day it would be his endeavor to promote the interests and pave the way for the advancement of such a faithful, loyal son.

And Frederick the Great was as good as his word. Step by step, as years rolled on, Fritz rose from one position of honor to another, and as a brave and skillful general he served his beloved king faithfully and well even to old age.—Boston Commonwealth.

The Law Didn't Cover the Case.

A "lost, strayed or stolen" dude
was arrested in Texas with a parlor pistol in his pocket, and taken before the judge, a broad-shouldered, bluff sort of a man, who had roughed it on the plains before coming to the bench.

"What's the row?" inquired the court, glowering on the prisoner, who shivered like a man kindling the fire on a winter morning, and looked like he wanted to crawl under the table.
"May I please the court?" replied the arrested officer, "the prisoner was carrying this pistol," holding up the weapon.

"Well, what of that?" changing front from the prisoner to the officer.
"Your honor, the law says that a man who carries deadly weapons shall be fined or imprisoned."
"May be it does. It's none of my business to doubt your statement, but the law don't fit this case."

"Your honor, the prisoner had it in his pocket."
"I don't care where he had it. As long as it was in his possession, it was a deadly weapon; for I'll bet a drove of steers such a looking bud of promise as he is couldn't hit a four-story meeting-house, with it, five feet. Turn him loose and give him his gun, the peace and safety of the commonwealth will not be disturbed."
—(Merchant-Traveler.)

The grasshopper has proportionately one hundred and twenty times the kicking power of a man. Blinks, who is not a favorite with the father of his best girl, says that he will never cease to be thankful that the old man is not a grasshopper.

A little fellow of five, with his first boots on, being told that the baby
wanted to kiss him, replied: "Yes,
he takes me for his papa!"
